

Nick den Heijer

Topic: Business Efficiency

As director of the Bentleys team, Nick actively facilitates the development and delivery of services for clients.

With over 20 years of real estate advisory experience, Nick's expertise extends across business advisory and transaction services. As a business advisor, Nick delivers commercial business and financial control advice, business modelling, business planning, succession planning, and management reporting, performance and cost improvement services.
