

Richard Hern

Topic: REA Case Studies

Richard is a partner in Wynn Williams' insurance practice. He has worked extensively for local and international insurers across a range of claims concerning health and life insurance, professional liability - particularly for real estate agents, financial advisers, and solicitors, along with complex property, business interruption and material damage claims, and defamation. He is also regularly engaged to provide indemnity advice, including in matters concerning insurance fraud.

Richard regularly acts in disputes involving real estate agents on instructions either directly from real estate firms or their insurers.