

Theo Kyriak

Topic: Structuring Businesses for Growth and Retention

Theo's extensive business and commercial experience working with corporate, financial and government sectors in New Zealand and overseas helps him lead Kyriak Law.

He is responsive and focussed on delivering practical solutions for SME owners, particularly in the real estate and property management sectors, to help them structure and grow their business and solve any problems along the way.
